The Friends of Hopewell Furnace

Join the Friends of Hopewell Furnace to add your support to the non-profit group that speaks out on your behalf to promote, protect and preserve the natural, historical, cultural and recreational resources of this national treasure. Becoming a member demonstrates your commitment to the shared stewardship of this national historic site.

A successful Hopewell Furnace doesn't just happen; it reflects the loyalty and support of its dedicated members. These are people who not only appreciate the Furnace's importance and inspiration, but also the quality of life and sense of community it provides. Join today to enjoy the opportunities and benefits exclusive to the Friends of Hopewell Furnace.

Friends meet on the second Sunday of the month at 2 pm at the conference center, with a wide range of interesting and informative topics presented and open to the public.

Visit our website, www.friendsofhopewellfurn.org, to stay up to date on current activities, to browse the Hopewell Ledgers database and to explore programs of interest.
